

Life Values & Beliefs

Life Values	Life Beliefs
1. Rightly Relating to God	That the essence of Christianity is a vital, loving relationship with a loving God.
2. Love for God and Man	That loving and serving Christ is the highest priority of life and the most satisfying experience of life, and that giving and serving are much richer life experiences than receiving and being served.
3. Character and Physical Development	That character development is more important than human success and that one's body being the temple of the Holy Spirit, should be given the proper diet, exercise and rest needed to keep it healthy.
4. Worship	That daily personal worship and weekly corporate worship of God is vital for healthy Christian living.
5. Moral Purity	That moral purity is the highest physical goal toward which to strive.
6. Disciple Making	That other than worship of God, making disciples of men is the most important life endeavor.
7. Effort	That doing one's best is more important than being the best.
8. Stewardship	That man owns nothing, but is merely a steward of what God owns.
9. Personal Relationships	That quality life requires building and nurturing significant relationships.
10. Spouse Selection	In choosing a spouse, spiritual qualities are more important than physical attractiveness or personality traits.
11. Family	That loving one's spouse is the most important relational commitment a married believer can make and loving and equipping one's children with godly values is the highest call of a Christian parent.
12. Good Reports	That one should never share or receive information that damages another person's reputation unless done as part of the problem solving process and that all speech should be designed to benefit the recipient.
